FACT/QUESTION/RESPONSE CHART

Directions: Use this worksheet to chart your thinking as you read a New York Times article. In the “Fact” column, record interesting or useful factual information you learn about the topic. In the “Question” column, write a list of questions that occur to you as you read. Finally, in the “Response” column, make a list of responses to the article, either as they occur to you or in direct relation to one of the facts or questions you’ve listed.

Headline of article: _____

Date: _____
